DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 1 recites the broad recitation "a load", and the claim also recites "in particular a drilling device" which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

With respect to claim 7, lines 3-4, "the output side", "the input side" and "the output shafts" lack positive antecedent basis in the claims.

With respect to claims 8-10, the term "acting" renders the claims indefinite. For example in claim 8, does the summation gear merely "act" like a two-speed gearbox or is it actually a two-speed gearbox?

With respect to claim 10, line 4, the recitation "the electrically acting brake device" lacks positive antecedent basis in the claims. Note that, in claim 9, "an electromagnetically acting brake device" is recited.

With respect to claim 14, lines 4-6, "the input shaft", "the gearbox", "the input shaft" and "the output shaft" lack positive antecedent basis in the claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-14 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claims 1-14 is allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest the entire combination of elements set forth including a summation gear as required in claim 1.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
